

to the governor and council; and if the said justices shall declare that any warehouse or warehouses is unnecessary, they shall, by virtue of such order, be discontinued, and if belonging to the county, the warehouse or warehouses, with the ground belonging thereto, shall be sold by the order of the said justices, and the sales thereof applied to the use of the county, and if they shall declare that the number of inspectors are too few or too many at any warehouse, the governor, with the advice of the council, may appoint and commission, out of the last recommendation, as many persons as may be necessary, or in the last case, take as many out of the appointment and commission as may be requisite.

In case any house should be discontinued, tobacco may be removed to the one most convenient.

SEC. 47. And be it enacted, That when any warehouse or warehouses shall be declared to be unnecessary, and shall be discontinued, that it shall be the duty of the inspector or inspectors at such warehouses to send the tobacco remaining in such warehouse to the warehouse most convenient thereto, the expense of which he shall charge to the county, to be credited in his account or levied for him if he should not be in arrears to the county; and the inspector at the warehouse to which the same is sent shall be accountable for the same.

Allowance to inspectors.

SEC. 48. And be it enacted, That for every hogshead of tobacco inspected after the commencement of this act in the counties of Calvert, Prince George's and Somerset, there shall be paid to the inspector or inspectors who shall deliver the said tobacco, the sum of seventy-five cents, and for every hogshead of tobacco inspected in the counties of Baltimore, St. Mary's, Charles, Worcester, Dorchester, Anne Arundel, Talbot and Queen Anne's, there shall be paid the sum of one dollar by the person receiving the said tobacco, at the time of delivery thereof, and the said inspectors shall account for and pay all such moneys by them received to the justices of the levy court of their county, who shall, out of such moneys, pay the proprietors of the warehouses, within one month after such account shall be settled, a sum of money, in their discretion, not exceeding sixty-seven cents, nor less than twenty-five cents, for every hogshead inspected, passed and lodged, in their respective warehouses, and the inspectors' salaries, and also all other expenses incurred in virtue of this act.

By 1803, ch. 4, sec. 4, one dollar per hogshead is allowed for inspection in Calvert county.

By 1823, ch. 165, sec. 5, the outage including the sample, at the Baltimore warehouses, is one dollar and twenty-five cents.

By 1837, ch. 245, the outage from the Prince George's warehouses is fifty cents, including portorage and sealing.

SEC. 49. And be it enacted, That every hogshead of tobacco that shall be unexported after being twelve months in any pub-